

REVISED TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR MULTI TV CONNECTIONS W.E.F. 01.08.2018

Multi TV or Parent-child connection(s) (hereinafter the 'Scheme') can be availed with any base pack except with any FTA pack. Maximum of 4 connections are allowed under the Scheme. The monthly subscription charges for the child connection(s) may vary from Rs.175 to Rs.250 depending on the base pack price. Conversion of an existing connection into Parent-Child connection shall be permitted only if the details of the Subscriber are same for both the connections. The base pack along with additional channel/services in both the connections shall be same except where the STBs are different being HD and SD, in which case the HD channel(s)/add-on pack(s) shall not be available in the connection having the SD box. Any Up-gradation of any of the parent/child connection to any higher pack shall result into automatic up-gradation of the other connections in the said higher pack. In case an HD connection is availed as the second or subsequent connection, the HD connection shall automatically become the parent connection. Where one of the Multi TV connection is HD, conversion of such connections to individual connections shall not be allowed within the initial period of 6 (six) months except upon payment of Rs. 500/-. There shall be only one account for all the connections under the Scheme and the billing for all the connections shall be done simultaneously and any payment deposited in either of the parent or child connection shall be treated accordingly. Subscription period would be reduced in case of deduction of any applicable charges and on availing any additional paid services VAS, Add-on Pack(s) etc. on any of the connection and such pack(s)/service(s) shall be automatically activated on the other connection(s). Limited period offer. Scheme is valid only in select cities. In case of SMS, premium SMS charges shall apply. Scheme and conditions thereof can be changed at the sole discretion of the Company. Composition of the channels in the packs and the rates thereof are subject to change.